Mr. Bruce Reeve, Chairman
Real Estate Committee
1301 Shadyside Drive
Raleigh, North Carolina 27612-2439

Dear Bruce,

During the D10 Board Meeting, February 2, 2008, in Biloxi, MS, Bill Cook Jr., District 10 Director, reported that the Real Estate Committee for the ACBL has narrowed the sites to four (4) for the location of the new Headquarters for the ACBL. After much discussion, I was asked, by unanimous vote, to direct a letter to the Board of Governors and District Board of Directors, ACBL, conveying the desires of District 10 Members. The four locations being Atlanta, Orlando, Memphis or Dallas.

It is our sincere desire that you seriously consider keeping the ACBL Headquarters in Memphis.

Memphis is, and has been for a long time, synonymous with ACBL Headquarters. We understand that it was imperative that the old building and location be sold, that it was no longer conducive to the needs of our members, and it was just not feasible to keep it any longer.

The Members of District 10 hope that you will present and strongly consider our desires and request to keep the Headquarters in Memphis when time comes for choosing the new location.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Clair Chisler,
President, District 10

cc: Mr. Dan Morse, ACBL, Chair, Board of Governors
Bill Cook Jr., District 10 Director
